General Information

Beginning of Classes and Changes to Course Meetings and Times

Classes begin on Monday, September 15, 2003. The meeting times and locations are listed for most courses. Graduate courses of reading and research (level 300/3000 and above) are typically not included. Please contact the appropriate department for additional information about meeting times and locations.

This course information is accurate as of August 12, 2003. For changes to courses (including status and meeting time), please refer to the online version of the Courses of Instruction at www.registrar.fas.harvard.edu. For changes to classroom assignments, please reference this web site and check the “Addendum” to the Courses of Instruction Supplement or proceed to the listed location and check the classroom entrance(s) for updates.

Exceptions to a course’s regular first meeting are included.

“Consult Professor” is listed when either meeting time or location was not available at time of printing.

For descriptions of the courses listed here, read the Courses of Instruction catalog or visit the Registrar's Office web site at www.registrar.fas.harvard.edu.

Supplement Key

A student who takes courses marked with an “*” must obtain the course instructor’s signature on his or her Study Card. Also, undergraduates must obtain the instructor’s signature for any 200-level or 2000-level course (except English 200 and Romance Language 200-level courses unless otherwise noted).

Independent Study

Any Sophomore, Junior, or Senior in the College may petition to undertake Independent Study. Independent Study petitions are available in each Allston Burr Senior Tutor’s Office.

Sectioning Information

Germanic Languages

Sectioning for German A and German Da will be held on Monday, September 15, 1:30 pm–3:30 pm in Barker Center 110. Note: German A will hold its first class meeting on Tuesday, September 16. German Da will hold its first class meeting on Wednesday, September 17. All other German language courses will meet as scheduled.

Romance Languages (Catalan, French, Italian, Portuguese, and Spanish)

For instructions for sectioning all lettered courses and all numbered courses under 60 in Catalan, French, Italian, Portuguese, and Spanish, students should read the individual course descriptions in the Courses of Instruction catalog or in the on-line course catalog. (Go to www.registrar.fas.harvard.edu/Courses/, then click on “Romance Languages and Literatures.”) In most cases, students will fill out an on-line sectioning form on the course web pages (accessible via the Registrar’s web site or at www.fas.harvard.edu/~rll/) and will receive notification of the date, time, and location of the first class meeting via e-mail. Note that most French, Italian, Portuguese, and Spanish language courses will have their first meeting on Wednesday, September 17 or Thursday, September 18, depending on the course schedule. Exceptions will be listed on the individual course web pages. The same sectioning procedures will be followed for spring term 2004.

Mathematics

To enroll in Xa, 1a, 1b, 21a, or 21b, students must section by computer between Monday, September 15 and no later than 1:00 pm on Wednesday, September 17. The first classes for Math Xa, 1a, 1b, 21a, and 21b will be held on Monday, September 22.

New Courses and Course Changes

The courses listed below are courses that have been created, bracketed, cancelled or changed term since the printing of the Courses of Instruction. For more information about course changes in status, including courses that have changed meeting times or faculty, please consult the most up-to-date version of the catalog which is available online at www.registrar.fas.harvard.edu.

Afro-American Studies 118. Switched to spring term.

[Afro-American Studies 231.] Not offered. Expected to be given in 2004–05.

Anthropology 143. Latin America Through Its Social Movements: Conference Course
Catalog Number: 0333
Leda L. Martins
Half course (fall term). W., F., at 10. EXAM GROUP: 3
Latin America has been fertile ground for the appearance of various forms of collective action, from indigenous movements in the Amazonian periphery to urban movements against sexual discrimination, poverty and violence. We analyze the main theories on new social movements and explore different cases of collective organization in Latin America on a variety of topics: environment, democracy, human rights, land, etc. We also develop a critical view of the study of social movements.

Anthropology 293. Racial Formation in Latin America
Catalog Number: 1942
John M. Norvell
Half course (fall term). Tu., at 1. EXAM GROUP: 15
Explores the social and cultural dynamics of racial formation in the wake of Latin American colonization and slavery. Readings include ethnographic and historical analysis and theoretical material on race, ethnicity, identity, nationalism, and related concepts.

Business Studies 2610. Not offered at FAS. Offered only at the Business School as 4610.

Classics 192. Not offered.

Classics 259. Offered fall term.

Economics 1076. Not offered.

Engineering Sciences 139. Innovation in Science and Engineering: Conference Course
Catalog Number: 0994
David A. Weitz and others
Half course (fall term). Tu., at 3, Th., 3–5. EXAM GROUP: 17, 18
Explores factors and conditions contributing to innovation in science and engineering; how important problems are found, defined, and solved; roles of teamwork and creativity; and applications of these methods to other endeavors. Students receive practical and professional training in techniques to define and solve problems, and in brainstorming and other individual and team approaches.

Note: Taught through a combination of lectures, discussions, and exercises led by innovators in science, engineering, arts, and business.

Engineering Sciences 239. Advanced Innovation in Science and Engineering: Conference Course
Catalog Number: 8303
David A. Weitz and others
Half course (fall term). Tu., at 3, Th., 3–5. EXAM GROUP: 17, 18
Students are expected to meet all the requirements of Engineering Sciences 139 and in addition are required to prepare an individual term project with significant analytic emphasis in an area of scientific or technological innovation.

Engineering Sciences 274. Offered fall term.

English 90pl. Psychoanalysis and the Lyric Poem
Catalog Number: 5503
DeSales Harrison
Half course (fall term). W., 1–3. EXAM GROUP: 6, 7
An investigation into the relation (historical, theoretical, ontological) between lyric poetry and psychoanalysis. Particular attention given to: questions of form, content, structure, freedom, constraint, metaphor, and resistance; the rhetoric of credible human presence; claims and critiques of selfhood derived from and/or directed against psychoanalytic practice. Readings from Shakespeare, Herbert, Whitman, Hardy, Lowell, Plath, Hecht, Bidart, Gluck, William James, Freud, Wittgenstein, Lacan, Winnicott, Kristeva, Vendler, Johnson, Crews, Zizek, Bass, Grossman, Lear.

[English 161m.] Not offered. Expected to be given in 2004–05.

Freshman Seminar 22k. Switched to spring term.

Latin American Studies 177. “Say You Want A Revolution”: Argentina and Brazil in the Sixties
Catalog Number: 0649
Gonzalo M. Aguilar
Half course (fall term). M., 1–4. EXAM GROUP: 6, 7, 8
Scrubtizes the different representations of the revolutionary subject in literary and aesthetic works, focusing on Argentina and Brazil in the sixties, a moment in which political antagonisms are intensified. We aim to work with the different aesthetic languages in order to be able to think the cultural practices and modes through which literature and aesthetics intervene in the configuration of the social Latin American imaginaries.
Note: Conducted in Spanish.

Near Eastern Civilizations 200b (formerly Islamic Civilizations 200b), Middle Eastern Studies Research Project: Seminar.

Physics 136. Physics of Medical Imaging
Catalog Number: 0182
Andrew J. M. Kiruluta
Half course (fall term). Tu., Th., 11:30–1. EXAM GROUP: 13, 14
Presents the underlying physics of modern medical diagnostic imaging techniques. Focuses on the following imaging modalities: Ultrasound (US), X-rays Computed Axial Tomography (CAT) scans, Positron Emission Tomography (PET), Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI), Optical Coherence Tomography and an overview into the next generation systems such as combined CT/MR, CT/PET, US/MR and Terawave systems. Flexibility exists to vary the depth of each area depending on background and experience of the students.
Prerequisite: Physics 15b and mathematics preparation at least to the level of Mathematics 21b taken concurrently. Physics 143a and b are recommended but not essential.

[Physics 264.] Not offered. Expected to be given in 2004–05.

*Psychology 2180. Concepts and Theories: Computational Models
Catalog Number: 5200
Susan E. Carey
Half course (fall term). M., 7–10 p.m.
Introduction to computational theories of cognition, with a focus on the structure and acquisition of concepts and intuitive theories.
Note: The course is held every other week at MIT.
Prerequisite: A course in cognitive science and a course in probability or statistics.
